FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

The 6-th RCCWS International Symposium
“WOOD STRUCTURE, PROPERTIES AND QUALITY – 2018: in honor of B.N. Ugolev”, dedicated to the 50th anniversary of the Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science
(RCCWS)

Sukachev Institute of Forest SB RAS,
Federal Research Centre “Krasnoyarsk Science Centre SB RAS”, Krasnoyarsk, Russian Federation
September 10–16, 2018

Siberian Branch of Russian Academy of Sciences, RAS Research Board on Forests, The Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science (RCCWS), Sukachev Institute of Forest SB RAS, Federal Research Centre “Krasnoyarsk Science Centre SB RAS” (SIF SB RAS, FRC KSC SB RAS), Mytishchi Branch of Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Education “Bauman Moscow State Technical University” (National Research University), Siberian State University of Science and Technologies (SibSU) organize the 6-th RCCWS International Symposium “WOOD STRUCTURE, PROPERTIES AND QUALITY – 2018: in honor of B.N. Ugolev” and 50th anniversary session of the Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science (RCCWS) from 10 to 16 September, 2018 at Sukachev Institute of Forest SB RAS, Federal Research Centre “Krasnoyarsk Science Centre SB RAS” in Krasnoyarsk.

The Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science was founded in 1968 at Sukachev Institute of Forest SB RAS in Krasnoyarsk (chairperson – Prof. B.S. Chudinov). Since 1990 it has been functioning at Moscow Forestry Institute (at present Mytishchi Branch of Bauman Moscow State Technical University, Mytishchi) (from 1990 to 2015 – chairperson Prof. B. N. Ugolev). Since 1991, the Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science has been functioning under the aegis of the International Academy of Wood Science (IAWS). Later, the Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science received the interstate status and involved many scientists from Belarus, Bulgaria, Hungary, Germany, Greece, Georgia, Latvia, Poland, Russian Federation, Romania, Slovakia, Ukraine, France, Estonia and Switzerland. The leading wood scientists of the universities and academic institutes of Moscow, Saint Petersburg, Archangelsk, Bryansk, Petrozavodsk, Kostroma, Voronezh, Ekaterinburg, Krasnoyarsk, Novosibirsk, Bratsk, Yakutsk and other Russian cities are the members of the Regional Coordinating Council of Wood Science. The Council includes the academicians of RAS, IAWS, national academies, members of RANS and other academies, Doctors of Sciences and PhDs. RCCWS organized international Symposiums “Wood Structure, Properties and Quality”: I and II were in Moscow (1990 and 1996), III in Petrozavodsk (2000), IV in Saint Petersburg (2004), V in Mytishchi (2014).
